SYNOPSIS

Tito Losada has dedicated his life to Flamenco. In his latest project, "Misa Flamenca", he turns to his people for inspiration to fight against the drugs and poverty that threaten the elegance of this part of Spanish culture. We follow Tito in his concerts through Spain, Mexico and Japan, entering his world, his crusade against drugs, his love for his family and gypsy community and the opinions of Flamenco friends such as Enrique Morente, Raimundo Amador, Ricardo Pachón, la Susi and Tomatito amongst others.
