SYNOPSIS

A parasite induced disease is killing Moses Taite's beeves in the dry American plains. Moses and two of his hands, Cyrus - a tough ex soldier who fought against Moses in the American Civil War - and Will - a temperamental but naïve young blood - embark on a mission to India. A race against time to save Moses' herd and his land to import Brahman bulls into Kansas and to cross breed and strengthen his cattle. The exotic world they are about to enter will bring adventure, action and dangerous times but also love into their lives.
